

MY DOG LIL'

Standing outside
In the dark
Watching his ex-wife
Her dog starts to bark

She looks out the window
As snow slowly falls
The baby they never had
From the woods calls

Lil was HIS dog
Long before
He met his wife
Whom he chose to adore

He wants to get back
All the things that he's lost
But his wife doesn't have them
Never did - such a cost

C

(Suddenly) charging the house
"Call the cops!"
"I don't care"

"It's just you and me now, dear!"
"Let's see
What you dare!"

"I'm a man! Don't forget"
Headlight sweep
His red hair

She cracks the door
The dog flies out
Blood everywhere
All his no doubt

He calls his lawyer
Milton Strack
They file papers
To get HIS dog back

The judge is a man
As all judges should be
Like President Lincoln
He sets that dog free

D

Home with Lil'
It's great at first
But soon comes back
His slackless thirst

His pain it grows
By leaps and bounds
And tears at him
Like hounds
A fox
Torn up by hounds

So he packs Lil'
In the car
The veterinary's
Not too far

He tells himself
It's for the best
And has Ol' Lil'
Put down
He has Ol' Lil
Put down

Now standing outside
In the dark
Watching his ex-wife
No dog starts to bark

B

(So) he climbs in a window
Not a sound - like a mouse
He stands in the livingroom
What once was HIS house

Next day they find her
Blue with chill
Now she's in heaven
With his ol' dog Lil
